We are now in our 6th week of this 2008-2009 school year and we are off to a great start!

Tuition payment #2 is now due for Kindergarten through grade 12. We appreciate your prompt attention to this. If you have a question regarding your account, feel free to stop by the office for information.

October dates to remember here at Willow Vale are as follows:

October 1 - Chess Club starts (3:15-4:15 p.m.)

October 10 –Staff Development Day – NO K-12 Classes – Preschool remains open. Day Camp activities for elementary age students. Sign up sheet in the sign in room.

October 27 – End of first quarter for K-12.

October 31 – Harvest Festival during the school day. Watch for the sign up sheet outside your student's classroom door. We need party items and volunteers for this very special fun day. We officially begin the Festival at 9:15 a.m. with a costume parade. (We avoid costumes depicting evil, witches, or violence.) Following the parade, there will be games, prizes, jump house, etc. Volunteers and cameras are welcome.

October 1st we will have a Chess Class start up. The cost is $100 and each child will receive a tournament size Chess Set, a board and a bag. If you are interested please come to the office for more information,

In mid-October the Music Matters Class sponsored by the San Jose Youth Symphony will begin here on our campus. Watch for the date to be posted in the sign in room. If you have questions or need additional information, contact the school office.

We would like to remind you to enter the parking lot at the entrance nearest the church. Exit at the far end of the lot onto Curtner.

Thank you for bringing in your Safeway receipts, box tops for education, and Campbell soup labels, etc. Watch the bulletin boards in the sign in room and we will post the updates of items we receive from these programs.

We appreciate the privilege of working with your students. We look forward to a great October together!
